

Artistic Director Part-Time Contract Position

Chamber Music Kelowna has a long-standing tradition of presenting excellent chamber music in an intimate setting. The Society focuses on supporting musical education and enjoyment in the community through concerts, outreach performances and scholarships.

Chamber Music Kelowna seeks a visionary artistic director to begin July 1, 2018, to build on the organization's reputation for artistic excellence and creative diversity. Duties include researching and selecting artists for a 5-concert season, contracting artists within the limits of a set budget and working with the Board of Directors, specifically the Performance chair and the Co-ordinator of Operations, to ensure that all concert preparations are carried out. Other responsibilities include organizing outreach performances, writing artistic narratives, editing and venue booking.

Hours are flexible and varied within a contracted amount per annum: work will depend on concert dates and need and may be done from home.

Qualifications:

- a strong classical music background, BMus or equivalent
- excellent writing and editing skills
- contract negotiating skills
- computer proficiency: Word, email, internet
- ability to work independently
